Rome, November 2.

ON the 20th of the last Month, Cardinal Ottoboni went early in the Morning to Albano, where he caused the Holy Sacrament to be exposed to public View, with great Magnificence in his own Ambrosial-Church of St. Paul: He assisted afterwards at a solemn Procession, accompanied with a Train of several Prelates and many of the Nobility, whom he splendidly regaled, when the Procession was over; and among the Guests at the Entertainement were the Cardinals Paulucci, Priuli, Vallemani, Acquaviva, Gualtieri, Coradini, Scotti, Altieri, and Olivieri. On the same Day Sig. Cervini performed the Function of the Anniversary Consecration of the Church of the Conception in the Camp of Mars. When the Princess des Ursins came lately to this City, and after an absence of 19 Years, she received Compliments at her Arrival, from 23 Cardinals; but Cardinal Acquaviva was not of that Number. On the 23d Instant, Cardinal Alban invited the Family of the Borgheze to his House at Montalto, and gave them a sumptuous Entertainment; which Family regaled his Eminency the next Day at Pontano. The same Day the Duke of Massa Carrara set out from this City to his own Residence, after having adjusted Matters here with his Brother Sig. Cibo. The Advocate del Corvo and his Brother, being in the Country at Monte Porzio, and hearing of the Arrival of the Family of Borgheze at Frascati, went thither in a Chaise to pay their Compliments to the Prince and Princess; but on the Road their Horse being ungovernable, overturned the Chaise; by that Accident the Advocate's Face was very much hurt, but his Brother's Thigh was broke, and his Face torn and bruised, so that he died in three Days afterwards.

Ratisbon, Nov. 11. The Evangelical Body has wrote to the Kings of Great Britain and Prussia, to thank them for the good Offices which their Majesties have been graciously pleased to use in Behalf of the Protestant Church: It is thought that the fresh Grievances of the Protestants which have been newly laid before the Evangelical Body, will retard for some Days the delivering to the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeitz the Answer from that Body to the Emperour's Decree, in order for a Narration of those Grievances to be inserted in the said Answer. The two Secretaries of the Ministers of Brunswick and of Brandenburg, are to repair forthwith to the Palatine Court, in order to be near at Hand to watch over the Interests of the Protestants. The Count de Gergy, Minister from France, is gone to make a Tour to Paris, but is expected to return shortly to this City.

Paris, Nov. 23. A Beginning has been made to arrest several of the Mississippians who refused to conform to the late Arrêt concerning the Deposition of a certain Number of Actions, according to the Rolls made by the Council for that Purpose, and great Precautions are us'd to prevent their escaping into foreign Parts. Those Rolls have not as yet been made publick; but 'tis expected they will be so in a few Days. Several Persons concerned in the Mississippi Actions, who endeavoured to escape out of the Kingdom, have been seized upon the Frontiers, and the Officers of the Government continue to seize upon and seal up the Effects of such, who still refuse to deposit at the Bank the Number of Actions for which they are taxed by the Rolls made for that Purpose. There are Advices, that the Sieur Vernezobre, who lately made his Escape from hence, appears now publickly at Amsterdam. The current Accompts in Bank, which some Days ago were at 100 per Cent-Benefit, are since fallen to 75; but 'tis as-red the Court will take such Measures in their Fared the Court will take such Measures in their Favour, as will make them soon rise again, and that they will bring the Actions of the India Company, within a few Months, to be worth 10000 Livres in ready Money. On the 20th Instant, the Sieur Morau, Exempt of the 100 Swiss, had a Quarrel at the Opera with an Officer of the Guards; they went out to fight, and the former had the Misfortune to be killed. It is advis'd from Provence, that Mess. de Muis and de Montifion, who had retired into a Castle about four Leagues off Marsailles, were got out at the Head of their Vassals, and having passed the Rhone, notwithstanding the Opposition of the Guards, were fled into the Mountains of Auvergne.
